There are very few Disney films where the main character has both parents in the film and both parents survive the film.

You could try and find out:

- which films do meet these criteria;
- which films do not;
- about reasons that have been suggested for this;
- whether this just applies to Disney films or other children's films too.

Pick some films and try to sum up the story in 20 words. You must write in readable sentences! Use your words carefully and choose wisely to ensure you are able to communicate the main idea. An example has been done for you.

Film	Story in 20 Words
Space Wars	Young man's family killed. He joins battle against evil, learns new skills before his tutor dies then destroys battle station.

Choose two films and fill out the storyboards, choosing just six pictures to represent the plot of each film.

Name of film: _____

A storyboard for a film, consisting of two rows of three empty rectangular frames each. The frames are separated by thick black lines, and the entire grid is enclosed within a thick black border that mimics the sprocket holes of a film strip.

Name of film: _____

A second storyboard for a film, identical in layout to the first one. It consists of two rows of three empty rectangular frames each, enclosed in a thick black border with sprocket hole details.
