Talking Heads

Friday 4th February 2022

Dear Parents and Carers,

This week we have launched our new school values. Values provide the foundation for building the standards, culture, and vision we want as a school. During the autumn term, we asked pupils, staff, governors, and the diocese what they would like included within the school values. This meant that everyone had an opportunity to contribute and feel part of the process. Over the past few weeks, the children have worked hard on the values, to make sure that they have ownership of them – this is so important in ensuring that the children understand them and how they can act on them as a Tilstock pupil. They have linked each value to actions, stories, and prayers. As a result, our new values are:

Hope, Nurture, Respect, Joy, Aspire and Achieve.

Each term we will focus on one of these values, linking them to everything we do at Tilstock. We have updated our website to include more detail on each of the values, which you can view here, and we hope you will join with us in embracing these to build our school and children's future.
